Missionary From Congo Addresses Evangelical Free Church Meeting

LAC LA BICHE — A large crowd was in attendance for the closing meeting of the 2nd annual missionary conference of the Evangelical Free Church, held in the Memorial hall, Sunday, March 26.

Speakers were Miss Olive Bjerkseth, missionary from the Belgian Congo; Rev. Jack Tattersal, Bogota, Columbia, S.A.; and Rev. Stephen Knights, missionary on furlough from Indonesia. A ladies' trio, Miss Joyce Gillespie, Miss Carol McDonald and Miss Ruth Neilson; and soloist John Nelson of Beulah Alliance Church, Edmonton, sang a number of times. Pastor Gillman Moe was pianist for the day and was in charge or arrangements.

Miss Bjerkseth, who serves with the Unevangelized Fields Mission near Stanleyville, Belgian Congo, had returned to her mission station last spring following her year of furlough in Canada. She had just resumed charge of a girls' school when trouble broke out and the missionaries had to evacuate.

Neither Miss Bjerkseth nor any of her fellow workers were harmed although they were stopped by Congolese soldiers armed with rifles and bayonets, and their car was searched for arms and ammunition.

Since conditions in the Congo are far from normal, Miss Bjerkseth does not know when she will be able to return to that needy land.

Rev. J. Tattersall, who at present is deputational secretary for the World-Wide Evangelical Crusade, has with his wife and family spent many years near Bogota, Colombia, S.A., and expects to return this fall for another term in evangelistic work in that dark and needy area.

Rev. Stephen Knights, whose native country is England, was in China for a number of years working under the China Inland Mission among university students. When Communism overran the country, foreign missionaries were forced to leave. Mr. Knights and his wife, who is a Canadian, have spent the past several years in Singapore.

The missionaries showed slides of the work on their individual fields and also had displays of curios.

Delegation From South Side Asks That Council Provides Sidewalks

LAC LA BICHE — Councillors McMillan, Bouvier, Vincent, Hamar and Shanks were present for the regular meeting of council, March 28. W. J. Chester was appointed auditor for the current year.

A group of ratepayers from the south side of town were in attendance to ask if a compromise could be made for installation of water and sewers to their area, whereby a frontage tax of 35c would be charged, instead of the 55 cents chargeable under the plan recently presented by the town's engineers. In the course of the discussion on the subject, members of the council endeavored to show the group that the consulting engineers had prepared the proposal calling for a frontage tax of 55 cents after careful study. Since the utilities board required that such a project be prepared by a firm of registered consulting engineers, the council had no power to deviate from the estimates prepared by the engineers.

The delegation also asked if some type of sidewalk could be provided in their district, as the only place for pedestrians and school children at present is on the highway. Council recognized that the situation was dangerous and promised to give serious consideration to the matter.

Authority was given for the assistant secretary, Mrs. Creighton, to take her regular holidays during the month of April.

A number of items of correspondence were dealt with and general accounts totalling $7,375.65 and gas system accounts totalling $2,849.89, were passed for payment.

It doesn't take a particularly smart man to be well-informed about the course of future events.

Slight Fire Damage At Cleaning Plant

LAC LA BICHE — Fire broke out in the roof of Varze's Dry Cleaning plant shortly after 2:30 p.m. Monday of last week. The local fire brigade were on the scene in record time and soon brought the fire under control.

The fire chief reported that the fire was caused by convected heat, and had doubtless been smouldering for a long time near the chimney under shavings used as insulation in the ceiling. When conditions were right and sufficient air was available to cause combustion the shavings ignited, fortunately during business hours.

All garments and clothing were carefully removed from the premises before any damage was done by smoke or water. Damage to the building was estimated at $300.

By WILLIAM L. SHIRER

Here is the inside story of Adolf Hitler's 12 fateful decisions that shook the world.

It is the story which sheds new light on his infamy and reveals many secrets of the Nazi's tyrannical regime. The series is adapted from the $10 best-seller "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich" by William L. Shirer.

As a correspondent and commentator in Berlin, Mr. Shirer watched Hitler's bloody rise to power. His book is a result of this first-hand knowledge and of six years of research among the tons of official German documents captured in World War II.

THE Homemaker

By BERTHA M. McCUTCHEON

This is the time of year when rooms look tired. The spring sunshine shows up every scratch, crack and bit of peeled paint. As you houseclean ponder some of these suggestions. Your room decoration and furnishing should express your own personality and likes but should be suitable for the activities which are carried on there. Miss Shirley Wood, our Home Design Specialist offers some suggestions.

ACCESSORIES

B. McCutcheon

Equallly important in the fashion and home furnishing field — accessories are the finishing touches which personalize an individual and her home.

An innate flair for the choice and arrangement of outstanding accessories is an invaluable asset. However, study of the considerations involved will allow us to develop or expand upon our natural talents.

Accessories may reflect the hobby of the home owner or simply indulge an appreciation of beauty. Whatever it may be or do, it must harmonize in color, scale and character with the existing home.

There are two types of accessory, the utilitarian variety and the purely decorative one. The utilitarian one may be a lamp, ashtray or bookend which combines service with decorative value, whereas the purely decorative accessory may be a wood carving, picture or figurine which serves no purpose. It simply delights the observer with its form and color.

There are a number of questions to consider in purchasing an accessory First, consider whether it is an object of beauty. Does it register as a single form at first glance, and lead one to an appreciation of its detail upon closer study or are you aware of surface decoration first. Any ornamentation used must be subordinate to the structural form.

Secondly, is the object appropriate for your room. Do not attempt to use crude diftwood on a marble fireplace in a formally furnished area.

Next is it a suitable companion to your existing accessories. Think carefully before combining bamboo placemats with crystal candalabra.

Fourthly, consider color. Color repetition in accessories creates color rhythm. Accessories often spike a color scheme, e.g. they may be of the most intense shade used but they must repeat a color in use. Therefore never introduce an isolated object (ex. one white lamp shade). Use pairs or repeat the color in further accessories.

Actually, accessories may provide the basis for your room color scheme.

Next is the object appropriate in size and form to the area it will occupy. Use a rectangular planter on a long narrow table, or a circular lazysusan server on a round coffee table. In other words, repeat shapes wherever possible.

As a final consideration check to see that an accessory serves its purpose well. A lamp must supply adequate light for nearly activities while bookends must provide adequate support.

It is important to use these considerations as guides not rules. Do not be afraid to attempt the unusual, but do study relationships before you accept them.

More on this next week.

Lubrication Method Must Change, Too...

The "horseless carriage" could hardly meet the challenge of the modern automobile in durability, speed, safety and beauty.

Yet, in its day, it was the last word. Imperial methods of manufacture and scientific advances have brought with them improved cars. Hand in hand with this progress has come improved methods and equipment for lubrication. "In their day" these out-worn methods were alright but today they're out of step with the times. For modern lubrication we advise you to stop here.

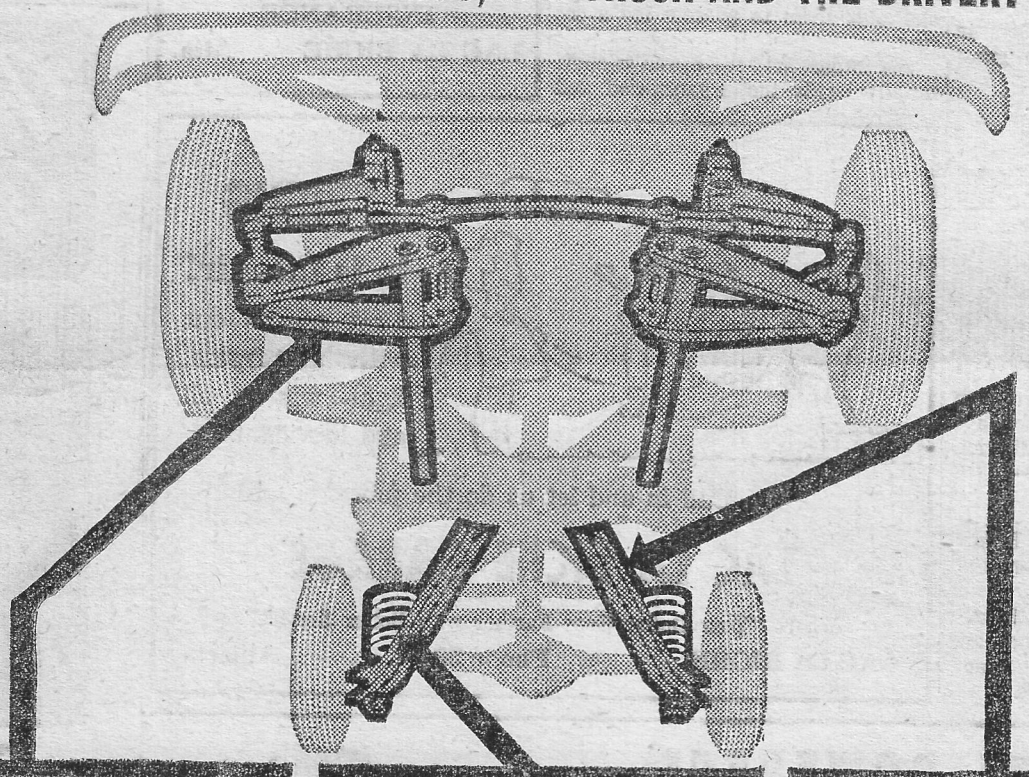
GMC'S BIG BREAKTHROUGH IN SUSPENSION ENGINEERING GIVES A RIDE THAT'S EASIER ON THE CARGO, THE TRUCK AND THE DRIVER!



INDEPENDENT FRONT SUSPENSION

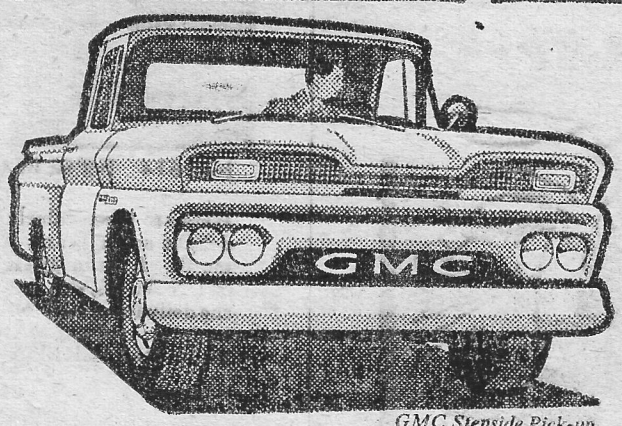
Front wheels ride over bumps individually and jolts are "soaked up" by the effective torsion-bar springs and double-acting shock absorbers before they reach the truck body or cab.

BIG REAR COIL SPRINGS

Designed for full cushioning effect on ½- and ¾-ton pickups, panels and chassis-cabs, these frictionless springs effectively cushion-out road shocks that normally would be transmitted to the frame. Wide-stance mounting improves the resistance to sway and roll.

DOUBLE CHANNEL CONTROL ARMS

These sturdy members ensure correct alignment of the rear axle, and transmit driving and braking forces, while a lateral stabilizer effectively handles side thrust. The deep coil springs are free to cushion the ride.



GMC Stepside Pick-up

Work-proved in every kind of operation, GMC's efficient suspensions bring you new values in low-cost maintenance and high-profit service. For the many other features that make GMC trucks the best in the industry, see your GMC dealer soon.

FORGERS PASS CHEQUES SIGNED "N. O. GOOD"

Millions of dollars are lost annually by Canadian businessmen through the passing of false cheques, RCMP Commissioner C. W. Harvison of Ottawa told the annual meeting of the Better Business Bureau in Edmonton.

He said some businessmen are so gullible as to take cheques signed: "I. S. Windle", "B. Friendly," and "N. O. Good".

"One of the biggest rackets in Canada", said Commissioner Harvison, "is passing false cheques. Tremendous amounts of money are lost each year by businessmen, and the cheque-passers are very difficult to catch."

Highly-organized procedures are often behind the passing of a cheque, he explained. First, a thief is hired to steal company cheques or a cheque-writing machine by a forger. The forger then writes out the cheques, and sells them to passers for a set sum.

The forger, said the commissioner, usually heads the organization and is, in addition, one of the hardest men to catch because he is merely a middle man in the operation. Another difficulty in this racket, he added, is the penalty levied by the courts being too small for the crime.

"A man is brought to court for passing a small cheque," he said. "He is then given a small sentence. He may be a professional, and may have passed many such cheques. He only receives a small penalty for his crimes."

Leduc Voters OK Fluoridation

LEDUC Leduc residents voted in favor of fluoridation of the town's water supply and to proceed with a sewer lagoon system.

Of 1,369 eligible voters, 354 voted for fluoridation and 113 against. There were seven spoiled ballots. A two-thirds vote of those voting was required.

In view of the fact that the town's water supply comes from Edmonton, no attempt to treat the town's water will be made until Edmonton takes its fluoridation plebiscite this fall.

The vote in favor of installing a sewer lagoon system at a cost of $87,00 was 278, and the number opposed was 63.

The other eight men were released by the Congolese.

Insurance means

For the Homeowner: Today, insurance is making it possible for more Canadian families than ever before to enjoy the security of home ownership.

Without the protection of insurance against fire and other disasters, probably few of today's new homes could ever have been started. Knowledge that a home and its contents are adequately insured against sudden loss replaces worry with Peace of Mind.

Last year, the companies writing fire, automobile and casualty insurance paid out more than 500 Million Dollars in claims across Canada — real evidence that insurance indeed means Peace of Mind.
